Professional Accreditation

Cody knew from his first day of law school that he wanted to work in estate planning. While in law school, Cody participated in the estate planning practicum where he was given clients who could not afford to hire an attorney. Through this program, Cody implemented a number of basic level estate plans before he even graduated from law school.

Prior to joining Strazzeri Mancini LLP Cody worked at the law office of Jeffrey Burr in Henderson, NV. Because Nevada has very favorable asset protection laws Cody has been able to bring his knowledge with him to Southern California to assist in our planning.

Personal

When Cody is not working he enjoys surfing, snowboarding, golfing, hiking, tennis, and enjoying the San Diego weather any way he can.
